Re: Estate of Allen W. Dulles

Dear Mr. Sloane:

Your letter of March 2, 1970 to Mr. Curtis Pierce of this office has been referred to me in Mr.
Pierce's absence.

At the time of Mr. Dulles's death, many of the papers in his possession were turned over to the Government for determination of whether such papers contained classified information.

In close cooperation with Federal authorities, we are currently cataloging Mr. Dulles's papers to determine which documents will be surrendered to the Government and which will be retained by the Estate for eventual distribution to beneficiaries under Mr. Dulles's Will. Until all of Mr. Dulles's papers have been cataloged, and a determination made as to their appropriate distribution, we cannot release any of his papers.

When the determination set forth above has been made, we will be pleased to discuss with you the possibility of commercial publication.

Sincerely yours,

Louis F. Comus, Jr.
